Father's Day
Remember to thank the men in your life for all they've done for you. Not just your father — all the men who have made a contribution to your life.

Patience is not about waiting for the storm to pass, but about learning to dance in the rain. Today's alignments invite you to listen within, to trust the silence between the moments. Each breath, each pause, holds the possibility of a breakthrough.
Trust the pauses. They are not empty; they are full of signals waiting to be heard. This moment is not asking you to act — it's asking you to listen. What do you hear when the noise fades? What truth rises when you no longer force clarity?
